Scripture: Joshua 5

The Israelites had to experience change. Do we really realize how much change there should be in our life when Jesus comes into our heart and mind? Have you allowed Jesus to fully change your life? Have you denied yourself for Him?

Think about this. On the very same day they began to eat the fruit of the Promised Land, centuries later Jesus Christ rose from the dead. Interesting!

So, what is the connection? Isn't this a picture of the moment in the life of the Christian when we realize that all our resources, all our strength are drawn from the Risen Lord.

You see, when a Christian begins to count upon the very presence of Jesus Christ, when we put our full trust in His victory and draw upon His power it is like stepping into a totally different world.

The child of God finds that his faith which has been firmly rooted at the cross now starts to bear fruit because he is living in touch with the throne of God. Isn't it a new experience when we not only look back to Calvary but also start looking and living in the throne room of resurrected Christ. We no longer look back to what Calvary did, but we now start receiving and drawing on Christ's power every moment of every day. We have discovered that the Christ who died for us is now the Christ of our whole life. (Continued)
