Scripture: 1 Peter - Chapter 1

Devotional – By Rev. Gerald Dunlap

1 Peter 1

#38

We can live our lives letting our children see that we have a secure, absolute place to spend eternity. A place where there is no need for medicine or police or armies or handkerchiefs or lights or bottled water or homeland security.

Our inheritance is far beyond anything you can imagine. It's so unique we will walk on streets of gold instead of killing someone to get gold.

What joy to be able to go to our child or anyone else and say I have wonderful, fantastic, believable news! You don't have to worry about your future. You don't have to be afraid of tomorrow. You just need to trust in Jesus. You just need to place your life in the hands of Jesus, and He will see you through.

To what end will we go to let our kids know we love them and nothing in the world is going to stand in our way of showing, showing them.

A son asked his father, 'Dad, will you take part in a marathon with me? The father, who despite having a heart condition, because he loved his son said Yes. They went on to complete the marathon together. Father and son went on to join other marathons. The father always saying 'Yes' to his son's request of going through the race together.

One day, the son asked his father, Dad let's join the Ironman competition together. To which his father said, Yes!

The father and son went on to complete the race together.

People, what will we do to make sure our son or daughter or wife or parents or friends win the race to heaven?

We must leave everyone an inheritance, a spiritual inheritance so we can make a forever difference in their lives. (Continued)
