Scripture: 1 Peter Chapter 1

1 Peter 1

#49

Somehow we think if we can help people today by changing words, so they don't sound so awful. We are being told you don't talk about being lost or that a person needs saved and so on. It doesn't work today in our world.

The real problem is that we don't get the fact that Jesus died to save us from sin that is as plain as it can get. He died to take our punishment because we deserved the punishment. He died to set us free from sin because we cannot do a thing about sin ourselves.

Joy is all about our relationship with Christ and being His partner in building His kingdom. True joy only comes from a total love for Jesus Christ. Even though you know all about the way Christ is, the joy doesn't flow until you experience true love with Him. Then the joy flows. It flows from you to everyone else in the world

If you could check your joy like you check oil in your car how would your dip stick read?
